at Our City of Toronto in Our said Province this twentieth day of February in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-four and in the twenty-third year of Our Reign.

BY COMMAND

JAMES SNOW,
Minister of Government Services.

Tuesday, the fifth day of March, 1974, being the first day of the Fourth Session of the Twenty-ninth Parliament of the Province of Ontario for the Despatch of Business pursuant to a Proclamation of the Honourable W. Ross Macdonald, P.C., C.D., Q.C., LL.D., Lieutenant Governor of the Province.

3 O'CLOCK P.M.

And the House having met,

The Honourable the Lieutenant Governor then entered the House and, being seated on the Throne, was pleased to open the Session by the following gracious speech:—

Mr. Speaker and Members of the Legislative Assembly:

On behalf of our Sovereign, I welcome you to the opening of the Fourth Session of the Twenty-ninth Parliament of Ontario.

As Honourable Members were reminded earlier today, continued improvement in the prosperity of our Province was slowed to some extent last year by inflation.

In 1974, the economy of Ontario, as with most of the major economies of the world, is faced with the uncertainties of the real and potential impact of the energy situation. In my Government's view, however, the prospects appear more favourable here than elsewhere. Despite projections of slower economic growth this year, combined with the continued rapid growth of the Province's labour force, it is still hoped that the level of employment achieved in 1973, which produced a record of 149,000 new jobs, will be maintained.

While my Government will employ all practical means at its disposal to alleviate the causes and effects of inflation, nevertheless it bears repeating that the problem can only be dealt with in a national context, with all governments cooperating.

In recognition of the fact that science, research and innovation play such an important role in an advanced and diversified economy, the Government of Ontario will establish structures to develop and coordinate science policy, both within our Province and in cooperation with the Government of Canada and other Provinces. Strong emphasis will be placed on the practical application of science to maintain our leadership in high technology industry. This is a key component in my Government's efforts to preserve our national economic independence, and to ensure that maximum social benefits are achieved.

A comprehensive program to improve essential services in remote areas of the Province will be introduced. This will include an extension of the electrification process, and improved telecommunications, especially for emergency purposes.

Improvements in telephone and communications systems in remote areas will benefit the residents and provide a firmer base for economic development. The cooperation of the Federal Government and of industry will be sought to develop reliable communications systems for the North.

A feasibility and engineering study will be undertaken for a road link to James Bay through Moosonee. This will include an environmental impact study and full public hearings.

Priority consideration will be given to the supply of electric power to Northern communities. A power line to Moosonee will be the first project in this undertaking.

Northern communities in unorganized territories will, through enabling legislation, have the opportunity to establish local community councils. Fire protection, water, roads, and other such services will become the responsibility of these community councils. Implementation of this plan will follow full consultation with residents of communities that wish to participate.

In recognition of the fact that the North, with its great distances, requires a first-rate highway system, high priority has been given to rebuilding and widening Highway 17 between Sault Ste. Marie and Sudbury.

Following the success of NorOntair, four more communities in North-western Ontario will receive air services in the first phase of an expansion program. In addition, funds will be made available for improvements to certain existing airports to bring them up to the standard required for a regular scheduled air service.

The Ontario Government is negotiating an Agreement to participate, through an appropriate agency, in the Polar Gas project to bring natural gas from the Arctic islands to Ontario.

Studies will be made regarding the establishment of a port facility in the James Bay area to bring potential supplies of gas, oil and minerals from sources in the Eastern Arctic.

The proposals for energy management announced last June indicated my Government's long-term goals for the continued social, industrial and economic progress of this Province. Developments in the Middle East in recent months have further underlined the pressing need for a coordinated energy policy for Canada, which the Ontario Government has been urging.

My Government will shortly outline Ontario's policy on the control and development of uranium as a provincial and national resource.

A General Development Agreement between the Federal Government and the Ontario Government has been signed. The Agreement has a duration of ten years and is intended to improve opportunities in those areas of Ontario which are in need of special assistance and to realize greater development potential.

The community of Cornwall is the first to benefit from this Agreement, and joint expenditures of approximately $14 million will be provided for such projects as the completion of servicing for an industrial park, construction of a Civic Centre, and the development of a tourist and recreational area.

Tourist operations, small businesses and service industries will benefit from improved loan programs and financial assistance from the three Provincial Development Corporations. Operators of small business establishments will receive more help and advice in solving management problems.

The Ontario Council for the Arts will undertake a program through which practising artists in the creative and performing arts may work in and with local communities. Emphasis will be placed on visits to schools in remote areas, and on programs in public libraries.

A wide variety of extension programs will be offered at Provincial cultural facilities. The Art Gallery of Ontario will establish an internship program to prepare fine arts students for art gallery careers, as well as programs to promote the visual arts throughout the Province.

In response to the recommendations of the Commission on Post-Secondary Education, my Government proposes to expand academic and cultural opportunities in the open sector. This will include the extension of educational broadcast services within the Province, along with the development of new and innovative educational support materials for school and college students as well as for persons learning at home.

You will be asked to consider legislation concerning negotiations between the teaching profession and school boards, as well as proposals for the consolidation of all legislation respecting elementary and secondary education.

In keeping with my Government's determination to introduce programs on a selective basis to meet those areas of greatest need, an income support program will be proposed which will assist in achieving a greater measure of security for Ontario's older citizens and for the disabled.

A proposal will be made for a prescription drug plan for our senior citizens.

Ontario's younger children are presently served by kindergartens, day care services of approved agencies and special programs for the handicapped. My Government will continue to support these services, and will initiate a new program of assistance for cooperative day care centres in low-income areas. The use of school and other community facilities for child care will be encouraged, and accommodation and staffing regulations will be reviewed with the aim of removing unnecessary impediments to the creation of new services. Resources will be made available to expand high priority services such as those for handicapped children, children from low-income families and native children.

Rehabilitation services will be strengthened to provide assistance to a larger number of physically and mentally disabled persons. Special efforts will be made to encourage local initiatives for community-based mental retardation services, including new community residences.

Amendments to The Health Insurance Act will provide a formal review mechanism for claims for services by non-medical practitioners, paralleling the system now used for claims by physicians.

The Report of the Health Planning Task Force, which has been chaired by Dr. Fraser Mustard, has been received by my Government. During the course of this Session, proposals will be placed before you for further development of a comprehensive health plan for the people of Ontario.

My Government will present proposals for extensive new sports, fitness and recreational programs that will offer more opportunities for the improved health and enjoyment of the people of Ontario.

A health education program will be prepared providing information on such health hazards as alcohol, tobacco and other drugs, and to encourage better use of our public health care system.

You will be asked to approve a major educational and enforcement program designed to reduce the highway accident toll caused by impaired drivers.

With regard to the Ontario Law Reform Commission's Report on Administration of the Courts, my Government will proceed with a planned program of implementation for judicial areas and for the rotation of judges and trial centres throughout those areas in consultation with those affected.

My Government is reviewing legislative and Common Law rules affecting the family as an institution in such matters as occupational and property rights in the home and laws concerning children.

A legislative program will be introduced ensuring that family law in Ontario reflects today's social and economic realities. The ultimate objective is a Code of Family Law, with special attention to the status of women and for the provision of a legal framework that will strengthen the family unit in our society. Attention will also be given to clarifying the legal rights of married persons.

My Government will create a new Office for Women Crown Employees in order to improve personnel administration and hiring practices.

My Government intends to promote the development of small community-based adult residences in place of traditional correctional institutions. These centres will be used in the rehabilitation of selected offenders prior to their release and as residences for those who are working or studying under the Temporary Absence Program. In Northern areas of the Province, centres will be located closer to existing communities with potential employment opportunities.

A new system will be introduced to place juveniles in training schools closer to their own homes and to provide better integration of group homes, probation, after-care and institutional services.

Negotiations are under way for operation and supervision by private business of an industrial enterprise within a correctional centre. This innovative experiment should provide inmates realistic employment and training experience. The labour force would consist of those serving short terms under minimum custody, who would be paid competitive wages. My Government is confident that with the support and cooperation of labour unions and industry, the concept can play a worthwhile part in correctional services in the years ahead.

My Government will introduce legislation with regard to consumer product warranties and guarantees in order to provide better protection for consumers, new redress procedures and more flexible means of administration. Legislation will also be introduced to protect the consumer from unfair and unacceptable trade and business practices.

Honourable Members, you will be asked to consider provisions for the mandatory use of automobile seat belts.

Legislation will be presented to establish an inter-regional public transportation authority for the Toronto area. My Government believes this legislation will maintain regional autonomy and provide a model that may be adapted to other areas of the Province.

You will be asked to approve legislation which will require an environmental assessment of major new development projects.

A permanent Advisory Committee on Solid Waste Management will be established in order to achieve closer consultation with municipal governments, environmental groups and industry, whose cooperation is essential to the solution of problems created by increasing waste of energy and material resources and the difficulties of waste disposal.

My Government will also propose other measures for the control and reduction of litter and solid waste.

My Government believes that positive steps must be taken to conserve and improve our visual environment. To this end, your views will be sought with respect to placing limitations and controls on outdoor advertising.

For the second consecutive year, dwelling starts in Ontario have exceeded 100,000 units, a rate of construction which is consistent with the Government's overall objective of one million new dwelling units in 10 years.

To assist in this achievement, a wide range of programs and approaches in housing development and community planning will be proposed, including housing for lower-income earners. These programs will be implemented within the legislative framework of a revised Planning Act, amendments to The Condominium Act and the establishment of a new Building Code for Ontario, and will be characterized by a closer partnership with other levels of Government, the private sector and citizens' groups.

It is proposed to increase spending on the construction of sewage and water treatment facilities from $81 million in 1973 to $115 million this year. The funds will be used for anti-pollution control and high quality water supply programs and servicing needs for new home construction.

In cases where land is designated by the Government for necessary housing or is being held by the private sector for future development, the Government will make proposals to ensure continued agricultural production on all suitable lands until they may be required for other purposes.

Twenty-three communities have been designated as neighbourhood improvement areas eligible for Federal/Provincial assistance for planning and improving physical and social facilities. My Government will urge the Government of Canada to extend assistance for commercial and industrial renewal.

The private sector, in consultation with local and regional governments will be encouraged to increase the supply of serviced lots and to work towards stabilization of land and housing prices. The Government looks to the private sector for even greater cooperation than in the past in the construction of public housing, involvement with rent supplement and integrated community housing programs, the Preferred Lending Program and condominium building, so that the housing needs of a large segment of the population can be met within a moderate price range.

A Provincial Home Renewal Program will be introduced with grants to homeowners and municipalities for preserving and upgrading the quality of existing housing in rural as well as urban areas.

Cet automne, le Premier ministre de l'Ontario sera l'hôte de la conférence annuelle des premiers ministres des provinces canadiennes. Cet événement se produit à un moment particulièrement important de notre histoire où, en raison des difficultés qui nous assaillent au Canada et des problèmes de portée internationale, un renouveau de coopération et de compréhension entre les provinces s'impose si nous voulons raffermir notre nation et rehausser notre sentiment national.

This autumn, the Premier of Ontario will be host to the annual conference of Provincial Premiers. This comes at a particularly important time in our history when challenges facing us within Canada and problems of world-wide significance will require a new level of interprovincial cooperation and understanding to strengthen our nation and to maintain and enhance our sense of national purpose.

May Divine Providence guide you in these tasks and in the discharge of your responsibilities.

Honourable Members, I wish to take the opportunity on this occasion to state that it has been my pleasure and privilege to have performed this duty over the past five years. To my successor, one of Ontario's most renowned and distinguished citizens, may I express all good wishes for her forthcoming term of office.

God bless the Queen and Canada.

His Honour was then pleased to retire.

1. for its chaotic education policy which has lead to the inability of teachers and school boards to reach a reasonable agreement and resulted in the dislocation of our education system.

2. for its failure to establish a Prices Review Committee of the Legislature which, together with a reduction in provincial deficit spending would exert control on inflation.
3. for its inadequate land use policy which continues to permit the unreasonable loss of farm land to government and private development and the unnatural inflationary pressures of foreign land purchases without safeguarding Canadian ownership and interest.
4. for its failure to establish planning and land servicing programs without which serviced lot costs have escalated housing out of the financial reach of our residents.

PRAYERS

2.00 O'CLOCK P.M.

The following Sessional Paper was tabled:—

Ontario Northland Transportation Commission annual report for the year ending December 31st, 1972 (No. 18).

Mr. Speaker delivered the following ruling:—

Referring to the alleged matter of privilege raised earlier in the week, by the Members for Scarborough West and Ottawa Centre, I must again point out, as I have on several other occasions, that by Standing Order 27 (i) a Minister may, in his discretion, decline to answer any question. I know of no recognized privilege of Parliament that would supersede that provision; nor can Members demand, as a matter of privilege, the Tabling by a Minister of documents which they may consider important. The Standing Orders provide procedures for Members who are not satisfied with answers to questions, and for notices of motion for the production of documents. In the latter case I should point out, however, that the mere Tabling of a notice of motion for the production of papers does not compel their production. The motion must be passed by the House and become an Order of the House before it becomes obligatory on a Minister to comply therewith. I suggest that this latter fact re-emphasizes what I said at the outset, that is, that the refusal of a Minister to comply with an oral demand in the Question Period for the production of documents is not a matter of privilege.

But this House condemns the government:—

1. for its chaotic education policy which has lead to the inability of teachers and school boards to reach a reasonable agreement and resulted in the dislocation of our education system.
2. for its failure to establish a Prices Review Committee of the Legislature which, together with a reduction in provincial deficit spending would exert control on inflation.
3. for its inadequate land use policy which continues to permit the unreasonable loss of farm land to government and private development and the unnatural inflationary pressures of foreign land purchases without safeguarding Canadian ownership and interest.

FIFTY-SEVENTH DAY

MONDAY, JUNE 3RD, 1974

PRAYERS

2.00 O'CLOCK P.M.

The following Sessional Papers were tabled:—

Copy of Agreement for the purchase of the site for the Townsend community in Haldimand-Norfolk (No. 50).

Report on the Investigation of an escape from the Brantford Jail on April 21st, 1974 (No. 51).

Mr. Speaker delivered the following rulings:—

On Thursday two matters were raised with me by the Members for Scarborough West and Wentworth. I have looked into these questions and my findings are as follows:—

Firstly, the point made by the Member for Scarborough West with respect to the reference of Boards and Commissions is valid up to a point. It is perfectly true that on Wednesday, March 6th, when the Standing Committees for this Session were authorized by Order of the House, it was ordered that "all Boards and Commissions are hereby referred to Committees numbers 1 to 4 in accordance with the policy areas indicated by the titles of the said Committees". Therefore, all Boards and Commissions coming within the Resources Development policy field stand referred to the Resources Development Committee. However, before any such Board or Commission can be called before the Committee, there must be a decision by the Committee, at least by a majority, that the Committee wishes to hear that Board or Commission. Moreover, should the Committee decide to call the Workmen's Compensation Board, any discussion of the silicosis problem would have to be confined to matters within the jurisdiction of that Board. The scheduling of meetings of any Standing Committee is the responsibility of the Chairman. The Vice-Chairman, who is at present acting as Chairman, takes the position that as the Board comes under the jurisdiction of the Ministry of Labour, the Estimates of which have not yet been considered by the Committee, there will be ample opportunity to question the Board at that time, and as the Committee has already taken up a great deal of time, this inquiry should be conducted in that way.

Referring now to the point raised by the Member for Wentworth, as I said previously, Wednesdays are sessional days, even when reserved for Committees. Non-sessional days during the Session are, of course, Saturdays and Sundays, public holidays, and any day on which the House is actually adjourned and recessed for such things as funerals, etc. A sessional day reserved by Order of the House for the Committees thereof is none the less a sessional day. The suggestion that because a certain Committee is sitting on another matter, e.g. a Bill, on a certain Wednesday and not on Estimates, could not be interpreted to mean that it was, therefore, not a sessional day. In accordance with what I have already said, sessional days are such, regardless of what may be the agenda of any Committees which may be sitting on such days.

The following Bill was read the third time and passed:—

Bill Pr20, An Act respecting the City of Toronto.

The Order of the Day for Third Reading of Bill 25, An Act to impose a Tax on Land in respect of certain speculative Transactions affecting the Control or Ownership of Land, having been read,

Mr. Meen moved, That the Bill be now read a third time,

And a debate arising, after some time,

Mr. Singer moved, seconded by Mr. Nixon (Brant), That all the words in the motion for third reading of Bill 25 after the word "That" be struck out and the following substituted therefore:—"the bill be not now read the third time but be referred to the Standing Administration of Justice Committee so that that Committee may determine whether or not the tax imposed by this bill is, in fact, deductible as a business expense under the federal taxing statutes."

The debate continued, and after some time, it was,

On motion by Mr. Deans,

Ordered, That the debate be adjourned.

Mr. Newman (Windsor-Walkerville) moved second reading of Bill 64, An Act to control Professional Fund-raising Corporations.

The debate concluded at 6.00 p.m.

The debate on the amendment to the motion for Third Reading of Bill 25 was resumed,

THE EVENING SITTING

And, after some time,

Mr. Speaker put the Question:—

Shall the bill be NOW read a third time" which was decided in the affirmative on the following division:—

ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTEENTH DAY

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 18TH, 1974

PRAYERS

2.00 O'CLOCK P.M.

Before the Orders of the Day, Mr. Speaker delivered the following ruling:—

In the course of the proceedings of last evening the Member for Port Arthur suggested that the motion for the House to sit after the normal hour of 10.30 p.m. was in fact out of order, and in so doing cited several extracts from May dealing with Notices and other matters relating to motions.

I point out however that our own Standing Order 32 in Clauses (a) and (c) sets out very clearly those motions which require notice and those which do not.

The motion under Standing Order 3, to sit past the normal hour, is clearly an ancillary motion forming part of the technical procedure of the House which, like Motions to Adjourn the Debate or to Adjourn the House, are moved as required without notice and do not require unanimous consent.

The House, according to Order, resolved itself into the Committee of Supply.

(In the Committee)

Resolved, That there be granted to Her Majesty, for the services of the fiscal year ending March 31st, 1975, the following supplementary sums:—

That the amendment be further amended by adding the following words:—

And this House further regrets:

1. The government's failure to pass back to consumers more than a tiny fraction of the huge revenue gains in sales tax and income tax resulting from inflation;
2. The government's failure to protect Ontario families from the serious effects of inflation by increasing the supply of houses, cutting gasoline taxes and establishing price and rent review boards with power to require rollbacks when justified.
3. The government's failure to recognize the plight of the 60 to 65 age group, many of whom are unable to find work, and are forced to live on minimal fixed incomes, but are denied eligibility for GAINS and the free prescription drug program.
4. The government's failure to increase grants to northern municipalities by an amount which would adequately compensate them for the increased cost of services in northern areas and their lack of financial resources to meet these needs.
5. The government's failure to impose an excess profits tax on corporations which are obtaining windfall profits from world scarcities and the consequent enhanced value of their products.
6. The government's failure to obtain for the people of Ontario full "economic rent" from the exploitation of their natural resources and its exhibition of naivete in assuming that a $125 million return from close to 2 billion production in the mining industry is a fair share for the owners of those resources.
7. The government's substitution of largely ineffective land taxes for real action in acquiring and servicing development land and bringing down prices of lots.

The amendment to the motion as follows:—

That all of the words after “That” be struck out and the following added thereto:—

this House regrets the lack of any government policy to effectively deal with the problems of inflation in areas of provincial concern;

this House regrets the government’s failure to provide for an effective review of price increases by using a Standing Committee of the Legislature for such a purpose;

this House regrets the government’s failure to control exorbitant increases in the costs of the Regional Governments implemented by this government; and this House regrets the government’s failure to have any effective programme to equalize the costs of living throughout the province or to plan for the balanced development of Northern and Eastern Ontario.

Mr. Speaker then said:—

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HONOUR:

We, Her Majesty's most dutiful and faithful subjects, the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario, in Session assembled, approach Your Honour with sentiments of unfeigned devotion and loyalty to Her Majesty's person and Government, and humbly beg to present for Your Honour's acceptance a Bill intituled, "An Act for granting to Her Majesty certain sums of money for the Public Service for the fiscal year ending the 31st day of March, 1975."

To this Act the Royal Assent was announced by the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly in the following words:—

"The Honourable the Lieutenant Governor doth thank Her Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, accept their benevolence and assent to this Bill in Her Majesty's name."

The Honourable the Lieutenant Governor was then pleased to deliver the following gracious speech:—

Before bringing this Fourth Session of the Twenty-ninth Parliament of Ontario to an end, it is my pleasure to present a review of some of the achievements of this Assembly in the past year.

As Honourable Members are aware, the major concern in 1974, for Ontario as elsewhere, was continuing inflation. Consumer prices last year rose by an average of 10.5 per cent. Yet, Canada and Ontario again experienced lower inflation rates than those evident in other industrialized countries.

Ontario's unemployment rate averaged approximately 4.1 per cent, slightly above the 1973 level. However, favourable circumstances have prevailed, as a result of which the Province was generally able to provide employment for persons entering the steadily increasing labour force, and about 152,000 new jobs were created during the year.

At the same time, to help control the growth rate of Provincial Expenditures, my Government announced its intention of holding the number of positions in the Ontario Civil Service throughout 1975 to the April 1st, 1974 level. This step is taken in the belief that the existing approved complement of 71,705 employees, excluding members of the Ontario Provincial Police, will allow sufficient flexibility within the operations of Government while ensuring that the level of service to the people of Ontario will not be adversely affected.

Several initiatives announced in the Budget last spring were directed toward offsetting the impact of rising costs on Ontario's citizens, and especially so for persons on fixed incomes.

As initially introduced on July 1st, Ontario's Guaranteed Annual Income System for the elderly, disabled and blind, known as GAINS, established a program of monthly payments to eligible persons to ensure a minimum annual income of $2,600 for single people and $5,200 for couples. A subsequent increase in Federal Old Age Security and Pension Support, in response to higher living costs, was supplemented by the Ontario Government which raised the GAINS minimum income to $2,700 and $5,400 respectively, on October 1st.

In a further increase effective January 1st, 1975, the GAINS guarantees moved to $2,766 for single people and $5,532 per couple. This second increase brings an additional 2,00 people into the program and raises the total payments by the Province to $84.5 million in the current fiscal year.

A new Drug Benefit plan was introduced on September 1st, extending further the benefits of the Province's health system to allow over half a million residents to receive prescribed drugs without charge. All persons who receive the federal Guaranteed Income Supplement, or Ontario GAINS or Family Benefits support are automatically eligible under the plan.

Universally applied benefits announced in the 1974 Budget include retail sales tax exemptions covering a wide range of consumer products, and amounting to an estimated reduction in potential revenues of $43 million. Further enriched Ontario tax credits, including the property tax credit, estimated to cost $70 million, were supplemented by an additional grant of $124 million to Municipal Governments to keep local property tax increases to a minimum.

Monthly workmen's compensation payments were increased to $260 effective July 1st, and the earnings ceiling raised to $12,000 per year.

A higher general minimum wage rate of $2.25 an hour came into effect on October 1st, with a minimum for construction industry employees of $2.50 an hour. A further increase is scheduled for May 1st, 1975.

As part of a resolve to meet the need for housing for the growing population in this Province, my Government has sought and encouraged greater involvement by the private sector in a broad range of programs. Announcement, last fall, of the first agreements with 11 developers for a potential total of 12,400 housing units to 1976 under the Housing Action Program, is one illustration of the progress being made. Some 30 additional developer agreements are being negotiated.

One-third of the 3,000 units scheduled to start in several municipalities by the end of 1974 are within the income range of the Provincial Home Ownership Made Easy Program, as are a further 636 units which will be started by the end of March. By a provision of the Budget last spring, the Province will make unconditional grants to area municipalities to ensure that local taxes will not be increased to service new developments of this kind.

Further, my Government has taken steps to help stem the rapid climb in prices on the housing market which has taken place alongside a somewhat slower rate of increase in the supply of land. A new tax levied on land speculators has been aimed directly at discouraging speculation activities and a realization of windfall profits by anyone in Ontario, while providing specified exemptions with respect to personal residences and recreational property, tourist establishments, commercial and industrial property, and farm and Crown lands.

At the same time, a Land Transfer Tax has been introduced, designed to discourage non-residents from purchasing and holding land, but allowing for exemptions in cases where the purchase is considered to be of sufficient economic benefit to Ontario.

Plans to improve essential services for people in remote areas of Ontario are progressing. An air communications network for Northwestern Ontario is scheduled for full service in 1977 with NorOntair links between 12 isolated communities and national and regional air services at Dryden, Thunder Bay and Sault Ste. Marie. My Government's authorization to the Ontario Northland Transportation Commission to implement NorOntair Northwest follows the success of a comparable demonstration program in Northeastern Ontario over the past three years.

On May 31st, 1974, a second subsidiary compact to the 10-year General Development Agreement with the Government of Canada was signed for Northwestern Ontario. Honourable Members will recall that a first subsidiary agreement was reached in February for several development projects in the Cornwall area. The Northwestern Ontario agreement is for seven specific projects including sewage and road construction and town-site infrastructure assistance at a cost of $42 million over a three-year period.

Subsequently, my Government also announced plans to increase the Province's regional priority budget for Northwestern Ontario to meet needs beyond those served by regular Ministry programs. Funds have been increased from $2.4 million in 1973-74 to $9.3 million for 28 projects in the current fiscal year. This assistance, while continuing to place emphasis on building a sound economic base in various parts of the region, has widened the scope of the program to include social and cultural initiatives, as well as a new project to train native people in policing and probationary services.

The special program to obtain health practitioners for remote or underserved areas of the province placed its 200th physician last summer, and 60 dentists have so far been recruited.

In December, a new rotation scheme was launched, under a one-year agreement with the Ontario College of Family Physicians, to serve communities that are unable to attract permanent resident physicians. More than 80 doctors have indicated their willingness to take part in the program in rotation periods of a minimum of two weeks each. The experience at Armstrong, the first locality to receive this novel service, will provide a base for evaluation and possible expansion of the program to other remote northern communities.

A unique new course was offered during the 1974 summer to train native Indian people as school teachers. Since then, most of the 96 successful candidates have been teaching or otherwise assisting in the education of native students. The project is the result of close co-operation between native peoples' organizations, the Government of Canada and the Ontario Ministry of Education. The second phase of the training program will be given next summer.

A plan has been developed to promote the use of Ontario's 5,000 elementary and secondary schools as focal centres of the communities they serve. The Province's school boards are being offered administrative and financial support for community school projects. In addition, my Government has strongly endorsed full community use of school facilities after regular school hours by groups and agencies working in concert with their local boards of education.

Education celings announced for 1975 will allow a 13 per cent increase in school board expenditures, amounting to an additional $350 million over the current year. An added new form of assistance provides a Provincial allowance of $80 per elementary pupil to enrich the programs offered at this fundamental stage of the educational experience.

At the post-secondary level, Provincial support to colleges and universities will be increased from $659 million in the current year to $768 million for the next academic year, an average increase of 16 per cent.

A new advisory council on Franco-Ontarian affairs has been established to assist the Government in matters affecting French-speaking university and college students, including manpower training and cultural affairs.

Cultural and recreational activities play an important part in sustaining the well-being of all our citizens and the life of the community. In support of this belief, my Government recently created a new Ministry of Culture and Recreation, which will give greater recognition to the multi-cultural nature of our society. It will be the task of the new Ministry to ensure the preservation and enhancement of Ontario's cultural heritage and to stimulate creative excellence on the part of individuals, as well ss for the benefit of the community as a whole.

A new Consumer Reporting Act proclaimed on July 2nd protects consumers in credit and personal information reporting, granting them the right to know what is reported and to whom. The law also makes provision for correction of false information.

Complementary legislation in the form of a Business Practices Act establishes sanctions against a range of undesirable practices that may occur in consumer sales.

Maintaining a secure and adequate supply of electrical power is of crucial importance to industrial as well as home consumers across Ontario. My Government has given approval to several power development projects by Ontario

Hydro for 1977 to 1982. They include construction of a new generating station at Wesleyville, expansion of the Pickering generation station, and construction of two additional heavy water plants in the Bruce nuclear power project.

Following an extensive and successful public consultation process, the route of a 500 kilovolt transmission line from Nanticoke to Pickering has been determined, and the Government has given approval for its construction at an estimated cost of $360 million.

Significant advances have been made toward overcoming the problems posed by growing volumes of solid waste and for recovering useful materials presently lost in landfill operations.

Last spring, my Government announced plans to proceed in a joint undertaking with the Municipality of Metropolitan Toronto in what is known as the "Watts from Waste" project. The goal of this experiment, to be carried out at the Lakeview generating station, is to use processed solid waste as fuel in the production of electrical power.

In the fall, my Government took the initiative in launching a comprehensive province-wide program to reclaim and recycle useful resources from solid waste, with the ultimate aim of replacing garbage disposal with a reclamation system serving 90 per cent of the population. Initially, six reclamation and recycling plants are to be built at a cost of $17 million for the Kingston, Sudbury, London, Metropolitan Toronto and Halton-Peel areas.

Growing world-wide concerns about ensuring adequate production and efficient distribution of food make it incumbent on governments to encourage the preservation and use of arable lands for agricultural production. To this end, a new Food Land Development Branch has been created in the Ministry of Agriculture and Food. Among its responsibilities, the Branch will help develop programs to maintain and encourage food production, in the interim, on Government-owned lands which are suitable for the purpose, although intended for other uses in the future.

In the spring, extensive damage was caused in Kitchener, Cambridge, Brantford, Paris and neighbouring communities when the Grand River overflowed its banks. The work of the local Disaster Relief Committee in the areas affected was carried out with tremendous will and spirit. Relief made available by the Province offered up to $4 in financial assistance for every $1 of locally raised funds, a more generous measure than in similar previous disasters, as serious losses were experienced by property owners unable to secure flood insurance.

Ontario was host to the 15th annual Premiers' Conference in September, at which Canada's Provincial leaders reaffirmed a commitment to continued interprovincial co-operation in the development of economic policies. The emphasis is on the formulation of effective measures over the shorter term, while maintaining a broad perspective of sound long-term planning.

Overall, Ontario's economy experienced a real growth of almost four per cent in 1974. While lower than the near-record rate of approximately seven per cent achieved in 1973, this means that the Province was nevertheless able to maintain the momentum of economic growth at a very satisfactory level.

At the close of what has been, as evidenced in this review, an active and productive Session of this Assembly, may I, on behalf of the people of Ontario, commend its Members on their many accomplishments.

And now, I declare the Session prorogued.

In our Sovereign's name, I thank you.

God bless the Queen and Canada.

The House Leader then said:—

It is the will and pleasure of the Honourable the Lieutenant Governor that this Legislative Assembly be prorogued and this Legislative Assembly is accordingly prorogued.

THE HONOURABLE PAULINE M. MCGIBBON, An Officer of the Order of Canada, Doctor of Laws, Doctor of University (Ottawa), Bachelor of Applied Arts (Theatre), at Our City of Toronto in Our said Province this twenty-sixth day of February in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-five and in the twenty-fourth year of Our Reign.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR OF OUR PROVINCE OF ONTARIO,

BY COMMAND

JAMES SNOW,
Minister of Government Services.

Tuesday, the eleventh day of March, 1975, being the first day of the Fifth Session of the Twenty-ninth Parliament of the Province of Ontario for the Despatch of Business pursuant to a Proclamation of the Honourable Pauline M. McGibbon, O.C., B.A., LL.D., D.U. (Ott.), B.A.A. (Theatre), Lieutenant Governor of the Province.

3 O'CLOCK P.M.

And the House having met,

The Honourable the Lieutenant Governor then entered the House and, being seated on the Throne, was pleased to open the Session by the following gracious speech:—

For the first time in many years, the long prevailing prosperity and buoyant growth of the Province of Ontario have been challenged. Because of unprecedented inflation abroad and here in Canada, and because of world recession, Ontario is presently confronted by economic conditions which will call for strong and decisive response from the people and from their government.

From the people, we must have moderation and restraint in the pricing of goods and services and in wage contract negotiations, to help stem these inflationary pressures and maintain our competitive position in world markets.

From government, my ministers, in their several responsibilities, will place before you a number of measures that will be responsive to present economic conditions. The budget, which will be presented on April 7th, will indicate clearly the government's response in areas relating to provincial economic and fiscal policy.

As would be expected, the province's financial requirements will be substantial, but well within our capacity. Nevertheless, while my ministers will both practise and urge restraint, they do not intend to follow a policy of retrenchment.

For many prosperous years, successive governments of Ontario have enjoyed buoyant revenues which have allowed us to achieve our priorities. In the last two consecutive years the publicly held debt has been reduced. It is now a time to invest in a determined effort to lessen the impact of current economic forces upon the Ontário people, to maintain the high standards of services already provided, to improve the level of personal security, and to encourage individual opportunity wherever government participation and initiative can be productive.

Ontario cannot stand still. It will continue to fulfill its accustomed role within the Canadian nation which is that of a progressive, compassionate and innovative society with a standard of living and a quality of life unequalled on the North American continent.

For many years, our labour force has enjoyed the highest wages in Canada. In many important areas these are now higher than in the United States. Social services, and provisions for the aged and the handicapped in this province have traditionally surpassed those of Ontario's sister provinces.

Investor confidence in Ontario today remains strong; the province continues to benefit, in its financial transactions abroad, from the highest credit rating available.

Last year Ontario's real economic growth, after discounting inflation, was approximately 3.5% compared to 1% for Germany, -0.5% for the United Kingdom, -2.2% for the United States and -3.3% for Japan.

My ministers await, with interest and concern, the ultimate determination of the Government of Canada with respect to immigration policy. Ontario has been enriched beyond measure by those who have come to this province from all parts of the world, representing a wide and welcome diversity of languages, cultures, and races. Indeed, of all immigrants who come to this country, this province is the first choice of more than 75% of new Canadians as their preferred destination for beginning a new life in Canada. These new Canadians seek what citizens of this province have come to regard as major characteristics of life in Ontario—security and opportunity.

With respect to these and many other advantages which our province holds, the government is resolved to give leadership, and introduce legislation and policies which will maintain the role and place of Ontario in Confederation.

Notwithstanding the present economic climate, the Government of Ontario is determined to expand upon the benefits and advantages now enjoyed by the citizens of this province:

The government will seek the cooperation of law-enforcement agencies and the general public so that our cities and streets will remain among the safest and most secure in North America;

It will strengthen the security and well-being of the elderly through the delivery of extended benefits and services;

It will maintain Ontario's leadership in the field of education to ensure that our youth have access to our learning and training institutions to allow them the fullest possible development of their potential;

The government will further encourage home-ownership so that Ontario families may continue to be the best-housed in Canada;

It is the right of all Ontario citizens to aspire to productive careers in occupations which satisfy their interests and abilities. To do so, both government and industry must make greater efforts to eliminate discrimination in career opportunities which now exists between men and women. It will be the deliberate policy of the Government of Ontario to find greater opportunities for women within its public service and to find means to encourage this in the private sector;

Measures will be introduced to provide Ontario farmers with reasonable assurance of the profitable, continuing operation of their vital enterprise;

As a safeguard against the growing complexity of government and its relationship with the individual citizen, the government will establish the office of a provincial ombudsman—or ombudsperson—to ensure the protection of our citizens against arbitrary judgment or practices;

My ministers will take appropriate steps to compensate those whose social benefits have been discounted by inflation;

The government will take further measures to control administrative costs and to examine with greater scrutiny its programs and activities in order to set a leading example of prudence and economy in the management of its affairs. It will continue to limit the civil service establishment to 1974 levels.

Mesdames et Messieurs les honorables membres de cette Assemblée, quel que soit le défi que les conditions économiques actuelles puissent poser, le gouvernement de l'Ontario demeure convaincu que son programme législatif dans cette session, ainsi que son budget, contribueront fortement à raffermir l'économie de notre province, à renforcer la sécurité et le bien-être de la population et à encourager chaque citoyen de l'Ontario à poursuivre une vie active et productive, dont dépend en définitive la prospérité soutenue de notre province.

Honourable Members: However challenging the present economic conditions, the Government of Ontario holds every confidence that its legislative program in this session, together with the budget, will contribute substantially to the improvement of the provincial economy, strengthen the security and well-being of our people, and give incentive to every citizen in Ontario to pursue active, productive lives upon which the continued prosperity of our province ultimately depends.

In our Sovereign's name, I thank you.

God bless the Queen and Canada.

Her Honour was then pleased to retire.

Before the Orders of the Day,

Mr. Givens moved, seconded by Mr. Deacon, That under the provisions of Standing Order 30 the Ordinary Business of the House be set aside to discuss a matter of urgent public importance, namely the remarks concerning the native Indian people of Canada attributed to and confirmed by the Member for Temiskaming; and that this House censures the Member for Temiskaming.

After hearing the arguments of the mover and the representatives of the other parties, the Deputy Speaker ruled as follows:—

The Member for York-Forest Hill gave notice of his intention to move a motion under Standing Order 30 as he is required to do by the Standing Order. Therefore I have had an opportunity to give this matter some thought and an opportunity to read the precedents and the authorities as well as to listening to the matters raised just now.

I feel that this motion is out of order for several reasons. First, it calls for the House to censure the Member for Timiskaming. This would be a highly unusual procedure, which if it is to be proposed, ought to be proposed by way of a substantive motion, notice of which would be given on the Notice Paper. Second, the motion proposes to discuss certain remarks which were made outside the Chamber by a Member of the House. Remarks made inside the House are of course the legitimate concern of the Chair where the Chair must weigh the question of freedom of speech against a possible abuse of privilege by a Member.

A motion under Standing Order 30 must relate to a genuine emergency. I do not feel that remarks made several weeks ago outside the chamber by a Member of the House who is not a Member of the Cabinet would be sufficient justification for the House to set aside its ordinary business to debate the remarks of that particular Member.

Therefore I rule this motion to be out of order.

On appeal, the Speaker's ruling was sustained on the following division:—

PRAYERS

10.00 O'CLOCK A.M.

The following Bill was introduced and read the first time:—

Bill 120, An Act respecting the City of Hamilton. Mr. McKeough.

Before the Orders of the Day, Mr. Speaker ruled as follows:—

Last evening before the adjournment, the Member for Wentworth raised the matter of the recording of the proceedings of the Social Development Committee while considering Bill 100, an Act respecting the Negotiation of Collective Agreements between School Boards and Teachers.

As there is no appeal from a decision of a Committee to the Speaker, under ordinary circumstances I would not be in a position to consider this matter, but I approached it from the standpoint that I was being asked to decide whether the House on Tuesday last gave permission to the Committee to record its proceedings or directed the Committee so to do.

*Lieutenant Governor's recommendation received.

As the Member for Riverdale properly quoted on Tuesday evening the report of the Procedural Affairs Committee made on April 29, which was later adopted by the House, specifically stated that—"the consent of the House must be given to have the deliberations of the Committee recorded". Furthermore, what was said in the House on Tuesday shortly before the adjournment, recognized this fact. The Member for Riverdale said—"It is a special interest Bill and we have consented to the recording", to which I replied—"The House is giving permission as I understand it to record the proceedings of consideration of Bill 100". With this the Government House Leader expressed agreement. Furthermore, last evening, when raising this matter, the Member for Wentworth acknowledged that this was the case. He stated that permission had been given to the Committee in advance so that it would not be necessary for it to return to the House to ask for this permission.

I therefore cannot see how this previous permission in any way removed from the Committee the obligation to determine whether or not it desired such permission. The decision remains with the Committee. Whether I agree or disagree with this decision is beside the point. The decision is for the Committee to make, and therefore not for me.

The debate on the motion for Second Reading of Bill 75, An Act to reform certain Laws founded upon Marital or Family Relationships was resumed, and after some time the motion was carried and the Bill was Ordered for the Committee of the Whole House.

Bill 122, An Act to amend The Labour Relations Act. Mr. Samis.

Before the Orders of the Day Mr. Speaker ruled as follows:—

On Thursday last, the Member for Rainy River raised what he considered to be a point of order with respect to a ruling by the Vice-Chairman of the Procedural Affairs Committee while considering Estimates.

I must again remind the House that there is no procedure for appealing the ruling of a committee chairman to the Speaker or the House. The only appeal is to the Committee. In the present instance I understand that this appeal was taken and the Chairman's ruling sustained.

There is no procedure for an individual Member to bring a matter from a Committee to the House. When a report of a Committee has been properly presented, it is then open for consideration by the House, but this is the only procedure.

However, in an effort to be as helpful as possible and to minimize such problems in the future, I will undertake to study very carefully the whole debate that took place in the Committee considering the Estimates of the Legislative Assembly and discuss the matter thoroughly with the Board of Internal Economy in an effort to provide some reasonable procedure.

The House resolved itself into a Committee to consider certain Bills.

On Friday last the Member for Wentworth raised a matter with the Acting Speaker which was reserved for my decision. I have no authority to refer matters to the Standing Committees of this House on my own initiative. The Member, or any Member, may give notice of a substantive motion which would be dealt with in the usual fashion.

The Member for Windsor-Walkerville also asked that I deal with the question of Ministers being Members of Standing Committees of this House.
